WELCOME and ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us call upon God's Holy name.

We come with praise and with prayer, knowing God to be good and gracious

Let us listen for God's whisper upon the waves.

Hearing our name called and our sins forgiven.

Let us look and seek the love and justice of God in one another, and in our world, and as we worship and work, as we help and are helped,

as we grow in faith with one another.

† HYMN

“Lift Every Voice and Sing”

Hymnal #339

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Holy God we confess to you our faults and our faltering, forgive our slowness of heart and our silence of speech when injustice stands all around us. Forgive our deaf ears and our blind eyes when the stranger and the neighbor are in need. Renew your spirit within us, restore your hope to our hearts and with the energy of your grace might we become disciples and friends amongst all people. (Silent Confession)

LITANY

(Amanda Gorman: Every Day We Are Learning)

Every day we are learning

How to live with essence, not ease.

How to move with haste, never hate.

How to leave this pain that is beyond us

Behind us

Just like a skill or any art,

We cannot possess hope without practicing it.

It is the most fundamental craft we demand of ourselves.

† AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

ADULT CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AT ST. MARK

Weekly Questions and Thoughts

Chapter Three: Jesus' opponents increase the resistance against him in the third chapter of Mark. Jesus is walking into many of these situations to heal, to teach, and to challenge the status quo. It is interesting that while Jesus is criticized by some, he is followed by many more. His ministry is clearly touching hearts, but his message is touching nerves. Here are some questions to consider as you read through chapter three this week.

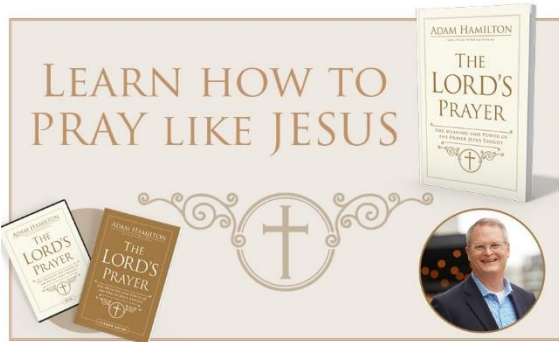

- Jesus is dumbfounded when no one will answer his question, "Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to kill?" (Mark 3:4, NRSV.) The next verse says he was angry and grieved at their hardness of heart. Do you understand the emotions Jesus is feeling? Have you ever felt something similar? Do you think there are moments where our silence grieves God? When might these be?
- Jesus calls the 12 disciples in this week's reading. What are the requirements to follow Jesus? What makes us hesitant to leave everything and follow him?
- His opponents argue Jesus has a demon, but he points out a house divided cannot stand. He then makes the point that every sin will be forgiven except for blasphemy against the Holy Spirit. Have you ever heard this verse before? Does it trouble you? How can we ensure we don't commit this sin?
- Jesus' family comes to see him at the end of the chapter, but, looking at those around him, he says, "Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother" (Mark 3:34-35, NRSV.) In saying this, Jesus reimagines the nature of family. Do you find this message encouraging? What are the implications it places on your life this week?
