ORDER OF WORSHIP

CENTERING PRAYER

Almighty God, ruler of all things seen and unseen, through your Son, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit, you show your power and mercy. You cast out evil, tear down walls of division, comfort and challenge your people, and show signs of your kingdom coming into the world. Grant that we may lift up the discouraged, strengthen the doubting, and join with all who seek to thank you for your goodness. Glory be to you, O God, who, with the Holy Spirit and the Holy Son, together is worshiped and praised; One God forever. Amen.

WELCOME and ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL TO WORSHIP

When forces in the world threaten us,
when our bodies and spirits turn against us,
there is One who seeks us,
One who heals us,
One whose love washes over us
and sets us free for joy.
This One is the Lord.
We come to worship God together.

† HYMN

Hymnal #65

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Holy One, God Most High, grant us faith to confess our sins and seek your mercy. There are barren places in our lives where we wander far from you. We listen to voices who distract us from your call. We do not take your helping hand. Savior, forgive us, quench our thirst for you, and let your love well up in us unto eternal life. Speak tenderly to us of your presence, and deliver us from evil so we might serve you. We pray this by the power of the Holy Spirit, in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ. (Silent Confession)

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. ADULT CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AT ST. MARK

Weekly Questions and Thoughts

Chapter Five: We're going "there and back again" in this week's readings. Jesus crosses the Sea of Galilee at the beginning of the chapter and returns after that work is done. Here are a few questions to consider as you read through Chapter Five.

- Have you ever considered how much Jesus travels in the gospels? Why do you think he's always on the move? Do you believe God is still moving? Where do you see the Lord at work this week?
- The good religious folks did their best to steer clear of the Gentiles. They were considered unclean after all. Why do you believe Jesus made a beeline to these areas and these people? What does this example say to us and leaving our comfort zones?
- The legion of unclean spirits clearly knew about Jesus and his power over them? Why do you think Mark emphasized the demons understanding this while the disciples were largely clueless?
- Jesus comes back to a more familiar setting for the second half of this chapter. He restores a girl to life and heals a woman. Many of Jesus' miracles occur while he is on his way to do something else. What does this truth say to you today? Is God ever too busy to heal, comfort, lead you?
- At the end of the chapter, the mourners laugh at Jesus' words this seemingly deceased girl is not dead but sleeping. How would you react if you were present in the story and heard these words? How would you react in the present day?
