ORDER OF WORSHIP

CENTERING PRAYER

Good and generous God, you bless us with favor and count us as your people. Freed by your grace, let us extend your generosity to others, sharing our bread with the poor, pleading the cause of the afflicted, and receiving all who assemble in your name with the warmth of your love and the richness of your hospitality; in the good name of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.
Amen.

ADULT CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AT ST. MARK

Weekly Questions and Thoughts

Chapter Seven: The disciples are not washing their hands before they eat. This creates quite an uproar among the religious leaders, and they question Jesus about this omission. This is one of those times when most of us would likely be on the side of the Pharisees. Cleanliness is next to godliness, after all. There's more to this story than meets the eye.

- This passage isn't really about washing our hands with soap and water. It's about keeping up with appearances. Jesus isn't having it, and calls out his opponents for their hypocrisy. What are ways we value how we look over how we are called to act?
- What do you think about Jesus' words, "There is nothing outside a person that by going in can defile, but the things that come out are what defile?" Is Jesus more concerned about our stomachs or our hearts?
- Jesus appears to insult the Syrophenician woman by calling her (and her kind) dogs. Does this bother you to hear? Why do you think he said this? What can we learn from her response?
- The chapter concludes with Jesus healing a deaf man with an impediment of speech. Jesus instructs the man to tell no one. It is reminiscent of Yusuf/Cat Steven's lyrics, "From the moment I could talk, I was ordered to listen." What are we supposed to take from this story?
