ORDER OF WORSHIP

CENTERING PRAYER (A Scout's Prayer)

Our Father, make us Trustworthy, for there are those who trust us. Make us Loyal, for through loyalty we reach our highest ideals. Teach us to be Helpful, for through helpfulness do we forget our selfness. Make us Friendly, for there are so many who need a friend. Train us in Courtesy, for courtesy is the carpet on life's floor. Make us Kind, for kindness is the oil in the cogs of life's machinery. Insist upon our Obedience, for victory comes only to the one who obeys. Make us Cheerful, for cheerfulness is the green grass among the rocks in the path of life.

Train us in Thrift, for thrifty habits brighten our future. Make us Brave, brave in the dark and brave in the light, but save us from becoming fakers in bravery. Help us to be Clean, clean in thoughts, in speech, and in deed. And may we remember that our bodies are Thy holy temples, and that any abuse thereof is to tamper with Thy Great Plans. Above all, O God, help us to be Reverent toward all things which Thou hast made for our enjoyment when we are in Thy great out-of-doors, among the trees, along the streams, and on the hillsides. May we know it was Thee who made the waters to flow, the trees to reach heavenward, the mountains to endure to all ages. In all these things we ask that Thou wilt help us. And may we never forget the Scout Oath to which we all have pledged ourselves, so that through Thy help we may live these points of our Scout Law. Amen.

Weekly Questions and Thoughts

Chapter Six: Jesus returns home in this week's reading, but it is not a happy homecoming. There are several unexpected events in Chapter Six. Here are a few questions to consider:

- a. It's been said, "You can never go home again." What does that mean to you, and have you experienced it in your life? What do you think it means for Jesus coming back to Nazareth and being rejected by his people?
- b. Jesus commissions the 12 disciples to go out on their own to proclaim the message of repentance and to heal the sick. Why do you think this is an important development in the larger story?
- c. We hear the gruesome tale of John the Baptist's death at the hands of King Herod. Why do you think the ruler allowed this to happen? Does this speak to the danger of "speaking truth to power?"
- d. We've likely heard the story of Jesus feeding 5,000 men with five loaves and two fish, and it's easy to discount the magnitude of this miracle. What does this story say about Jesus' love for hungry people's souls and bodies? What is this story leading us to do today?
- e. There's an earlier account of Jesus calming the sea with the simple words, "Peace. Be still." In this week's reading, we hear about Jesus walking on the water. Why do you think there are so many stories on the water? Where do we turn with our fears, worries, and doubts?
