† AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Heidelberg Catechism

Q1. What is your only comfort in life and in death?

A. That I am not my own, but belong—body and soul, in life and in death—to my faithful Savior, Jesus Christ. He has fully paid for all my sins with his precious blood, and has set me free from the tyranny of the devil. He also watches over me in such a way that not a hair can fall from my head without the will of my Father in heaven; in fact, all things must work together for my salvation. Because I belong to him, Christ, by his Holy Spirit, assures me of eternal life and makes me wholeheartedly willing and ready from now on to live for him.

Q2. What must you know to live and die in the joy of this comfort?

A. Three things: first, how great my sin and misery are; second, how I am set free from all my sins and misery; third, how I am to thank God for such deliverance.

ADULT CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AT ST. MARK

THE HEIDELBERG CATECHISM

The Heidelberg Catechism was published in 1563 and was soon accepted by Reformed churches throughout Europe. It is designed to provide instruction for young people, give a pastoral guide for preaching, and shape a faith that is lived, not just learned.

The questions and answers are divided into 52 Lord's Day sections, and we will be using them as our Affirmation of Faith throughout 2026. Over the course of this year, we will cover the essentials of the Christian faith and look at practical applications for our lives.

The catechism begins with a familiar question, "What is your only comfort in life and in death?" It then moves to discussions on Guilt, Grace, and Gratitude. This yearlong journey will begin today, January 4. You can access a Heidelberg Catechism Q&A page with footnotes for each week on the Worship page at discoverstmark.org and are encouraged to ponder the questions ahead of each service.

Many people in our region lack enough warm clothing to stay protected throughout winter. Dog and cat coats are appreciated too!

GriefShare is a place you can come with caring compassionate people to walk with you on your grief journey. Be with people who are experiencing similar feelings. Let us help you. GriefShare meets weekly for 13 weeks. It is very helpful, but not required to attend all the sessions. Our next session starts Tuesday January 13, 6:00 – 8:00 pm.
